

WEDDING DIRECTORY

Spoil yourself at a spa

BEFORE the big day, build in some pampering time with a special weekend spa break. The Aqua Day Spa at the five-star Sheraton Noosa resort — already a hot wedding venue — has spa treatments for couples and bridal parties, including a range of treatments for men.

Try the Ultimate Indulgence Package — four hours of bliss including a wrap, massage, facial and manicure or pedicure. For details, visit www.aquadayspa.com.au or www.sheraton.com/noosa

High tea for two, or more

FOR an indulgent high tea in the comfort of your home, look no further than Milk and Two Sugars. Its new mobile high tea service provides all you need to make hen's days, kitchen teas, bridal showers and even wedding receptions perfect.

For a consultation, call 0416 181185 or visit www.milkandtwosugars.com.au

Flowers you'll never forget

WHEN choosing a florist to create those ever-important wedding bouquets, don't forget to consider local boutiques.

Flowers by Teresa, a small florist in Marrickville, is a favourite with the locals and has worked with some of Australia's leading interior designers.

Teresa opened her store 10 years ago and is an established artist in her trade. To view her floral work, head to 402 Illawarra Road, Marrickville, or visit her website www.flowersbyteresa.com

Fine style for the big day

WEDDING jewellery can really make or break your look on the big day, so quality is important.

Moi Moi Fine Jewellery in Sydney's

Queen Victoria Building specialises in bespoke stone pieces and silver hand-painted jewellery to compliment your wedding style.

Moi Moi's latest collection, Miabelle, includes rings, pendants, earrings and bangles in a range of colours and designs sure to appeal to the bride to be.

Check out www.moimoi.com.au

